

COMIC OPERA GUILD presents
A TRIBUTE TO

Jacques
Offenbach

A Luncheon-Theater Celebration
Sunday, June 8, 12:00-3:00pm
Webers Inn. Ann Arbor

He was a musical genius, a bon-vivant and a man who delighted in life with a devilish sense of humor. Who else could have become "The Father of Operetta?"

The Comic Opera Guild has reveled in performing his works and would like to share moments from them. We will eat and drink with friends, and be entertained on a summer afternoon, just as was the master's habit over a century ago.

Offenbach composed over 100 operettas, both for his own theater and the big houses in Paris. His fascinating life will be illustrated by selections from his operettas in a multi-media format, featuring video clips from Guild productions as well as live performances by both new and veteran stars.

Don't miss it. Reserve now!
